

Want Your Kids to Have the Time of Their Life This Summer? Stony Brook's Summer Sewing Program is always a big hit!

Summer registration has begun. Don't delay in registering. Last year most of our Summer Program classes sold out! Marsha Welch and Nancie Turner, both educators during the regular school year, will be teaching a variety of camps to delight and inspire you to get going sewing. Register early to guarantee enrollment in the program you want to attend. To insure proper supervision and student enjoyment of the class, space is limited so register now.
